COLLEGE MEN AND WOMEN ARE FOR THE DYER BILL

Fraternities Representing More Than Ten Thousand Members Join In Effort To Stamp Out Mob Violence In America Suggest "Anti-Lynching Day" To Be Observed in Solemn Protest Against Mistrreatment Of Colored Americans.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—One thousand college men and women, may effectively join in the effort to better the condition of colored Americans.

Dissmination of Information

Following instructions received from Dr. Sadie T. Moses, chairman of the Inter-Fraternity Council, the Inter-Fraternal and Fraternal Councils, the Southern Fraternal and Fraternal Councils, making up the Inter-Fraternity Committee on Public Affairs recently met at the call of Mr. A. L. Taylor, treasurer of the Inter-Fraternity Council.

Dr. R. R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee Institute, is to be in our city Monday night and Tuesday as the guest of the Commonwealth Steel workers Club.

Dr. Moton will address a banquet of the Commonwealth Steel workers Club at the Plaza Hotel Saturday evening.

At the opening of the Anti-Lynching Day to be observed throughout the United States when the whole story of the atrocious acts of lynching will be told from every pulpit and before every fraternal and fraternal organization in the country.

A Inter-Fraternity Committee was recently held in Washington, D. C., a council was formed composed of representatives of the four largest Negro college fraternities.

Dr. E. J. Tamm, president; Mr. A. L. Atkins, the Omega Psi Phi and the Phi Beta Sigma—and the three Negro college sororities—the Alpha Kappa Alpha, the Zeta Phi Beta.

In order to carry out the recommendations of the Conference, the Inter-Fraternity Council with the Inter-Fraternal Council and the Inter-Fraternal Committee on Public Affairs decided that they would take to promote through the chapters and members of the Fraternities and Sororities having membership in the Inter-Fraternity Council, the Inter-Fraternity Anti-Lynching Day.

In this connection it will seek to have a message of anti-lynching given from every pulpit and every fraternal and fraternal organization in the country.

In the days when business was altogether in the hands of white people there was no question of lynching in real estate.

His present holdings are valued at $500,000.

Mr. Tamm was born in Galveston, Texas, Christian, colored man, who paid their fee and many declared their intention of doing so soon.

Meeting nights have been set for the last meeting in each month.

The following officers were elected:

President, Prof. R. S. Cole, Secretary, Prof. G. W. Buckner; Vice-President, Mrs. Henry Howard; Secretary, Mrs. Gertrude B. Johnson; Asst. Secretary, Miss Ardelle Barrett; Executive Committee, Rev. Dr. E. L. Scruggs, Messrs. H. W. Stokes and T. Parker White; other members, Dr. J. T. Cason of this city and who was prominently connected in business and religious circles here, have been elected.

Harvard U. Announcement
Looks Like Discrimination

Inter-Racial Committees
Organize In The State

Associated Negro Press

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 7.—What has been done by Harvard University in its efforts to combat racial discrimination against the Jews has just been issued by the Harvard University Authorities.

In view of the fact that the best of the Harvard authorities say it will be necessary to limit the number of students applying for admission every fall from now on, the Negroes are asked to do the same.

"We have not at present sufficient classrooms or dormitories to take care of all the Negroes who apply for admission," said the Harvard University Authorities. "It is clear that if we are to have a general policy can be formulated on this great question it must engage the attention of the government and the faculties."

"It is natural that with a widespread discussion of this sort going on, there should be some difficulty in the preparation of laws at the college."

Dean Greenglass denied that any race discrimination was planned.

"Way Down East," "Cain And Abel" "Her Mad Baso" At Comet

The features at the Comet Theatre this Saturday will be Anita Loos in "Her Mad Baso" and scenes from "Cain and Abel." It has been estimated by one of our prominent newspapermen that if not many more names, addresses and titles, have been prompted by the story of Cain and Abel than from any other narrative of the Old Testament.

On Saturday evening, Friday, D. W. Griffith presents "Way Down East." This was a play by Little Blair Parker which Joseph Grimaldi adapted and produced and enjoyed unusual popularity for over a decade. D. W. Griffith has taken this and made it his own for which represents a combination of music, drama and motion pictures, has produced a classic. The same version is based upon the same tale of pathos and love revolving around the love of a David Bartlett and Anna Moore in a New England home.

stances. It is said a powerful dramatic situation is created through bringing the characters of the story's attempts to discern the Higher Power in a comparison with man's might.

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse and "Ladies Must Live."

At the Olympia.

Red O'Bryan's $1,000,000 production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" will have its first presentation on Market Street Saturday and Sunday at the Olympia Theatre.

The Four Horsemen have been placed except as the war serves as a background for a story teaming with dramatic passion.

The director, Red Ingram, has succeeded in creating one of the great struggle in a series of unforgettable pictures that flash out the quintessence of life at white heat.

He makes the audience realize the awesome force of the four horsemen, Conquest, War, Famine and Death, proposed by St. John in the Book of the Apocalypses, and interwoven with the lives of the people.

Betty Compson is the "Conqueror."

Betty Compson will be seen in "Ladies Must Live," on Thursday and Friday. The story deals with the women of the world who, while some ladies must live, plan to make that living as easily as possible.

In the development of this theme the genius of George Loane Tucker is evident, the result being a picture of supreme interest and appeal to every film fan.

Robert Ellis and Jack Giltberg have the leading roles.

The play is based on a novel by Alice Duer Miller.

"Western Speed," and "The Duke of Chimney Butte." At the Casino.

Charles Jones steps into "Western Speed," the new Fox production which will be seen at the Casino this Saturday in a feature that would do credit to any developing star.

With the first flash Jones is being ordered off the premises at the home of a beautiful girl. To make her realize he is not a bad boy he begins to polish a rifle at the hero's head. He tells her undauntedly that he will leave, but that some day he's coming back. This is the kind of strenuous activity to be overcome and much perilous work to be accomplished before the stanch cowboy clinches his hands around the girl he loves in his arms.

The story is that of an adventurous cowboy who takes it upon himself to rescue the girl he loves, but finds not only the love lost and her father from the clutches of an unscrupulous saloon man and his criminal cronies. There are a number of perils episodes throughout the story, but finally the hero and Jones acquit himself in true western ranch style.

"The Duke of Chimney Butte" in which Fred Stone is the hero in the role of a cowboy, who puts to rout a band of cattle thieves, will be the feature, announced at the Casino on Sunday.

The Duke of Chimney Butte is a woman's tough working man and serves as her protector. Sand and again against the band of bandits who have been hunting him down for months.

This opens the way to many thrilling adventures which are depicted on the screen with splendid results.

"The Duke of Chimney Butte" is certainly hot, and cattle thieves but escapes and then rounds 'em all up and puts them out of the way, after being himself in danger of death several times.

"Why Girls Leave Home," "My Boy," "God's Country And The Law," and "Lincoln."

Anna Q. Nilsson in "Why Girls Leave Home" will be the feature at the Lincoln.

On Sunday, Jackie Coogan will be seen in "My Boy." As Jackie Coogan, a little immigrant orphan, the distinctive actor makes a picture of infinite charm.

Based closely by farce he finds himself without a place to sleep or anything to eat in the bustling city of New York. Forced from his home to place and find a sympathetic person to help anywhere, it is up to the little chap to take care of himself, in spite of his tender age. And how he does it makes one of the finest pictures of the year.

Next Thursday, The Lincoln will present "God's Country and the Law," with Charlie Chaplin and the Northwoods and a study of the workings of a guilty conscience, thrillingly portrayed.

"God's Country And The Law" At the Rialto.

"God's Country and the Law" will be presented at the Rialto this Sunday. It is the story of a happy home in the North Woods being nearly broken by a whiskey drinker.

In the story the son would be a murderer after some of the most exciting scenes ever screened.

Does a wife have a right to mingle with her husband's fast set? Is a woman's life may be as poor as a cobbler's spouse? She gave him everything she had, but he married her in the end. Such is "the way of a woman."

LOOK THEM OVER CAREFULLY

We are interested in the long list of candidates who have filed for public office expressing their desire to "serve the people."

We are particularly interested in those who have filed for United States Senate. The man who aspires for that high office and expects the vote and support of the people, must be strong and courageous; a man of convictions, and a man of integrity.

The colored people of the State, aside from the general interest, will have a peculiar interest in the candidates for the Senate, in that they will want to know how the candidate stands on the question of civil and political rights of the Negroes in this country. We will want to know what their convictions are with regard to the institution of lynch law as applied to colored people in America.

The past records of those who aspire for this office should be thoroughly and impartially looked into, to ascertain what has been done or said by them which would have a bearing on the case.

The National Association for the Advancement of colored People will doubtless make inquiries and investigations, and report to the people.

USING THE NEGRO TO HIDE CRIME

A fourteen year old Miss at Louisville, Kentucky a short while ago instinctively followed the usual custom of most criminals among the white people, when she accused a colored man of attacking her, in order to hide her own crime. The practice is so common among a certain class of white people, until the mere youth finds it convenient and profitable to hide their misdeeds by falsely accusing a Negro.

Many colored girls preferred to want to be a "flapper," therefore, wanted her long hair reduced to the "bobbed" style. After making a bad job of it without the knowledge or consent of her parents, the "Negro" story instantly came to her mind. She reasoned, that all the white folks in Louisville would believe her story just so long as she accused a Negro. She knew that race prejudice is stronger than reason. She thought it would be pretty easy for the police to find some Negro who would fit the description she gave. As to the results or what would become of the accused, she did not care.

Many who have gone before her have adopted similar methods, to hide, not only their own deeds, but the deeds of their lover or sweetheart. Many have paid with his life with a rope around his neck, for the misdeeds of white men and women. Surely it is getting time for an investigation to be made into some of these false alarms.

LOCAL BRANCH N. A. A. C. P.

With the recent killing of two Negroes and shooting of a third who was a customer in a drug store, all of which seems unwarranted, the local branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People have some real work on their hands.

This is proper work of the Association, and the people are ready to back the Association with dollars and numbers, when that body takes the lead in these things affecting the race. Mere maintaining an organization does not justify its existence when the real work of the organization is being neglected.

WANT A NEW CONSTITUTION

As much as the people of Missouri want a new constitution, let's insist on a new one from top to bottom.

The bill did not call for an "amended constitution," but a new one. We do not want a "patched" document.

Any attempt on the part of the builders to "short-cut" their work, will be considered nothing less than neglect of duty by the people of the State.

TRIBUNE BACK AGAIN

After a lapse of nearly nine months, the St. Louis Tribune is being published again by the Pushkin Publishing Co.

The Tribune, now published weekly, the officers and directors represent quite an array of talent, which to our mind is able to develop a strong spokesman for the race, if given the proper encouragement.

It is the great pleasure of the Argus to welcome the Tribune again into this virgin field of journalism. The field is broad, and much work to be done.

We herewith reproduce a statement of the Tribune that the readers of the Argus may see and appreciate the favorable conditions under which it is being published at this time.

Stars Win Two Out Of Five
From The Monarchs

The Kansas City Monarchs won their first game of the season on Thursday in ten innings 8 to 5. It was the greatest ball game of the season. The Stars put on a game fight and held their own, but lost the wall up on a surprising offense to win a battle that will live long in the hearts of the local fans.

Professional baseball, for amateur, art, happiness and soul enthusiasm, filled the hearts of the assembled devotees at the shrine of King St. and McNaughton. The Stars' team ran wild and loose with the vibrant yell of enthusiastic fans.

The ninth inning rolled around and the pet of the own fanbase, two runs, were hit through the cracks. The covered and the teams went into the tenth deadlock. McNaughton's home run over the left field fence put the Stars into the lead again.

McNaughton did not discourage our boys and we put two runs over in the tenth and won the ball game and sent the fans home with their hearts cracked and covered and the teams went into the tenth deadlock.

McNaughton's home run over the left field fence put the Stars into the lead again.

On Friday the Stars were beaten by the bats of the Monarchs won 10 to 1. Currie worked for the Monarchs and his delivery was hard to solve in the pitches.

Star Friday the teams journeyed to East St. Louis and put on an exhibition game. The Monarchs were shut out due to the late innings. The game being held.

Supply with a large crowd on, the Monarchs had little trouble in handling the famous All Chicago formerly the Kinston Hill club today at Schorling's Club. The team is big and strong. Carpenter, late of the New York Yankees and Dayton, Ohio, also Dick Kerr, holder pitcher of last year, W. C. Williams, 2111 Paragon Avenue, is secretary and booking agent.

CHICAGO SLAUGHTERS A. B. C. TEAM

CHICAGO, Ill., Sunday.—The American Giants stopped the A. B. C.'s of Indianapolis in the first game of a two-game series at Schorling's Park, 11 to 1.

Dave Currie, pitcher, was the man.

Game: Bunched hits and fielder's choices which were beaten out at the plate. The Giant runners were responsible for six runs, while the Indians threw by Gasolide and the materialists in the same frame.

The breaks of the game were against the Hoosiers. Ball is expecting a good offer from Jimmy Shleton of Cincinnati to fight Young Lawrence, the popular son of last year's Dreamland Garret, Springfield, Ill. He is looking for a good mite artist to face the St. Louis boy.

Notors, to postpone the date to July 4.

The St. Louis light weight champion has been on the sick list and working every day and is not in fighting condition. However he is not so bad that when he is not fit and spoils his reputation by staying a poor boy. He is well thought of in the East and is a good player. The St. Louis team is the best in the country and the fighting game. and working on the stage, is able to withstand the onslaught of the hard-hitting, brawling Tutt?

Many critics are of the opinion that Jimmies is in line for the same does as before, the aged, but still dangerous Jimmies, however, will not yield the Boston bulldog, who is now in the fourth round of a scheduled 15-round bout.

Others advance the theory that Jimmies, like the other champion, has done much of his ring training and defensive skill, and that in the event the match does not last to olong when he did his work "long shore," he is going to continue to be the victim of these rats which infest Jimmies' ring.

He is not the only one who is in the arena against each other in Ohio.
